AMERICA'S MOST WANTED

A FORT WORTH ADVENTURE • 1883

FORT WORTH

★ THE STORY & THE MISSION

Letters have reached the Fort Worth sheriff from lawmen across America. They have heard about a remarkable new opportunity called PERGA, and they all want to meet the man behind it. The sheriff sent messages. Then riders. But the PERGA proprietor has vanished. Is the sheriff out to shut him down, or does he just want a piece of the pie?

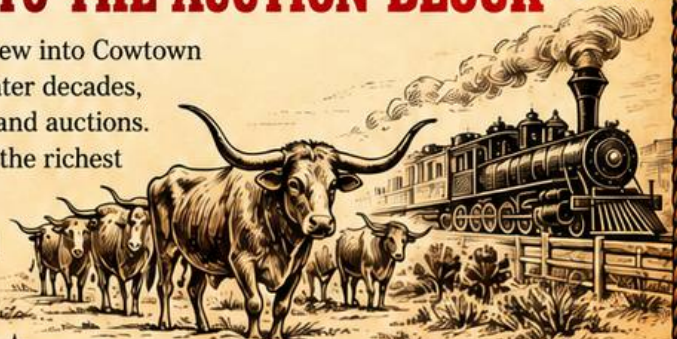

The sheriff needs your help. Follow the clues through Fort Worth, find the proprietor, and discover what has everyone talking.

★ FROM CATTLE TRAILS TO THE AUCTION BLOCK

Fort Worth began as a frontier military post and grew into Cowtown as cattle and the railroad brought opportunity. In later decades, the Stockyards became a center for livestock trade and auctions. Nearby Niles City grew so prosperous it was called 'the richest little city in the world.'

This weekend, we carry that auction spirit forward by coming together to give back.

★ NOW IT'S YOUR TURN, COWBOY!

Keep your eyes open. Follow the clues. Trust your instincts.

Not every trail leads where you expect.

AMERICA'S MOST WANTED

A FORT WORTH STOCKYARDS ADVENTURE | 1883

CLUE 1

THE SHERIFF'S MEETING PLACE

Before a herd took the trail, a cattleman's mark told the world whose cattle they were.

Across the street, a mighty good burger joint still wears the face of a drugstore from the show 1883. Look for the room named for those cattlemen's marks.

The sheriff holds his meetings there. Step inside and find him. He's been waiting to hear what you know about the PERGA proprietor.

YOUR SEARCH BEGINS HERE.
